

Volunteers Needed

Lifeskills Learning for Living

We are currently looking for people to help us deliver safety education to children via our exciting interactive village based in central Bristol

We need help with:

- Guiding - which includes working with small groups of children and delivering interactive safety activities
- Hosting - which includes running an opening and closing talk with the children and supporting teachers

Join us for a new volunteer taster hour on Wednesday 12th April Email us to find out more and to book your space!

If you are interested in volunteering for Lifeskills, please call or email for more information.
