Service Questions

In services this week, we have been helping ourselves and others to 'fly high like an eagle' by reflecting on these questions: What did you find out about your new class? What are you looking forward to next year? Do you have any questions for your new grown ups?

Staff News

I am sad to say that Mrs. Cox will be leaving St. John's at the end of the year, but I am delighted for her that this is because she will be commencing her teacher training! As you will be aware, Mrs. Cox has been an LSA and then a Higher Level Teaching Assistant at St. John's for a number of years and this summer has stepped in to teach Campbell Class. I am sure you will want to join me in wishing her all the very best for the future as she starts at Bath Spa University next year; she will be truly missed at St. John's.

"Incredible! I knew it would be fun but I hadn't anticipated them learning so many skills and being so inspired."

We encourage imagination and resourcefulness, teaching skills & techniques rather than how to make the same, 'perfect' thing.

"You have changed her relationship with art. She used to hate it, it made her feel bad about herself. Now it's her favourite subject."
