At St John's online safety objectives are taught using Project Evolve integrated into Computing and PHSE curriculum.

Project Evolve has broken up the areas of online safety into eight strands:
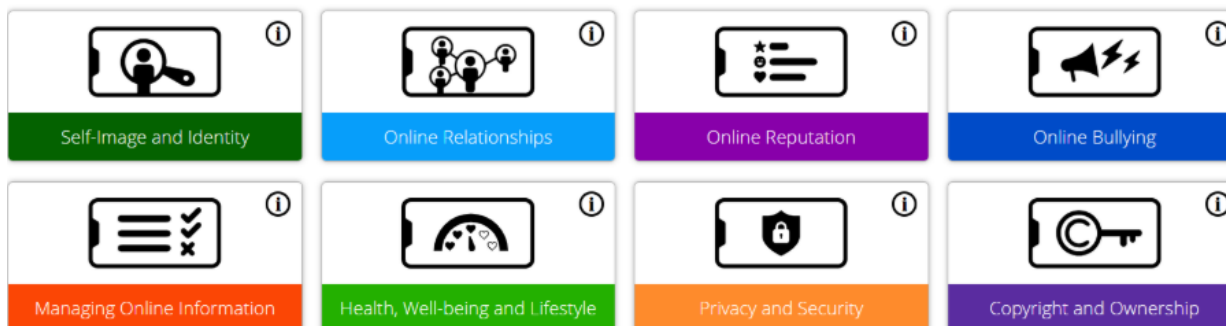

We have looked at these strands and allocated ones that best fit with computing lessons and ones that can be taught through separate lessons often linked to PHSE.

Strands taught through computing:

Managing Online Information
Privacy and Security
Copyright and Ownership

Strands taught in class often linked to PHSE:

Self-image and identity
Health, Well-being and Lifestyle
Online Relationships
Online Reputation

Strand taught elsewhere:
Online Bullying - taught during Anti-bullying week
